GET TO KNOW JENNIFER PONSON

Jennifer Ponson's journey as a jewelry designer began in an unexpected way - through her daughter's love for geology. Inspired by her daughter's college studies, Jennifer dove into the world of semi-precious stones, sparking what she calls her "addiction" to their beauty. Before pursuing jewelry design, she spent years as an orthodontic assistant, where she mastered the art of wire bending, a skill that now forms the foundation of her work.

Jennifer's unique perspective, paired with her passion for nature and design, results in jewelry that tells a story. Stop by Barn L at Blue Hills to meet Jennifer and experience her one-of-a-kind creations firsthand.
